

Cardiology at “The Ranch”

Rocking Horse Ranch, Highland, New York

16th Annual -- Saturday, April 22 – Preliminary Program

8:00-8:30 Continental breakfast, registration, exhibits

8:30-8:45 Welcome – Dr. Ellis Lader

Blood Pressure “Mini-symposium”:

8:45-9:45 SPRINT and JNC “late” – what are our BP targets and how should we measure them? Dr. William White, Farmington, CT

9:45-10:45 Does diastolic pressure matter? And what can we do about it? Dr. John W. McEvoy, Baltimore, MD

10:45-11:00 Break

11:00-12:00 PROMISE them anything but give them technetium? Choice of initial noninvasive testing for chest pain after PROMISE Dr. William Boden, Boston, MA

12:00-1:30 Lunch

1:30-2:30 New drugs, new guidelines, for chronic systolic heart failure Dr. Marvin Konstam, Boston, MA

2:30-3:30 My patient fainted, should we rule out a pulmonary embolus? Dr. William Slater, New York, NY

3:30-3:45 Break

3:45-4:45 Stump the Expert (or at least slow him down a little!)

Dr. Muhamed Saric, New York, NY

