DISCLOSURE

As a provider accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) and the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC), the American College of Cardiology Foundation (ACCF) must ensure balance, independence, objectivity and scientific rigor in all of its directly provided or jointly provided/co-provided educational activities. Planners, presenters, and other contributors, in a position to control the content, are required to disclose to the audience all relevant financial relationships he/she and/or his/her spouse or domestic partner may have, occurring within the past 12 months, with any entity producing, marketing, re-selling, or distributing health care goods or services consumed by, or used on, patients. When an unlabeled use of a commercial product or an investigational use not yet approved for any purpose is discussed during an educational activity, the contributor should disclose that the product is not labeled for the use under discussion or that the product is still investigational. Should it be determined that a conflict of interest exists as a result of a financial relationship you (or spouse/domestic partner) may have, this will need to be resolved prior to the activity.

Your disclosure information will be reviewed by the Accreditation Compliance Workgroup. Staff will follow-up with you to advise if any conflicts of interest (COI) were identified, and the recommended resolution mechanisms. In accordance with ACCME and ANCC stipulations, in the unlikely event there is a refusal to disclose or inability to resolve potential COI, you will not be allowed to take part in the activity.

While your acceptance is considered pending until you complete the disclosure, you may register for ACC.18 prior to completing this step. Please note however, that registration status will be considered incomplete and meeting badge and materials will be withheld until the disclosure process has been finalized.

HOW TO SUBMIT DISCLOSURE OF FACULTY RELATIONSHIPS INFORMATION

Click the link below to the ACC Disclosure System. Login with your ACC account and enter in your information no later than a week after you accept your invitation.

<http://disclosures.acc.org>

(If link does not open, copy and paste into a new browser.)

If you do not know your ACC login information, email resource@acc.org or call 202.375.6000, ext. 5603.

You only have to complete the process once regardless of the number of roles you accept.

Disclosure information not on file with the ACC by January 15, 2018 will result in forfeiture of your faculty role(s) per ACCME regulations.

If you disclosed prior to March 12, 2017, you will need to update your disclosures for ACC.17.

HOW TO REGISTER FOR ACC.18

Faculty must register for the Annual Scientific Session (staff will NOT automatically register you). You may register 24 hours after the time you accept your role(s).

If you accept a structured session role (e.g., presenter/co-chair/panelist) your registration fee is waived; however, the ACC does not pay an honorarium, nor reimburse for hotel, travel, or per diem expenses. If you are an abstract presenter or challenging case presenter ONLY, you must register and pay the registration fee in your respective category.

Register and secure your housing online: <https://accscientificsession.acc.org/Registration-and-Hotels>.

If you have questions or need personal assistance, please contact the ACC.18 Registration & Housing Center at acc@experient-inc.com or call 1-888-322-2878 (toll-free) or 1-847-996-5822 (international residents), Monday through Friday, 9:00 a.m. - 6:00 p.m. ET.

To contact staff: Email Kara Dixon at kdixon@acc.org or Jill Diamond at jdiamond@acc.org if you are an ACC.18 speaker; or Matthew Parks at mparks@acc.org if you are an interventional pathway speaker.

FACULTY LOUNGE

Beverages will be available all day. Breakfast will not be served, but Faculty will be able to grab a light lunch.

Your interest in the ACC is greatly appreciated. Thank you for your prompt response and we look forward to seeing you March 10-12, in Orlando, FL!
