Now that I have accepted my invitation (assuming no travel restrictions at the time of the meeting), what are the next steps I need to take?

1. Complete your disclosures by visiting <https://disclosures.acc.org>. If you do not have an account, or if you have forgotten your password, you will be able to create an account or reset your password on that page.
2. Register for the conference by visiting <https://accscientificsession.acc.org/Registration-and-Hotels> starting Wednesday, October 21. Staff will NOT automatically register you.
 - As a faculty member, you will receive complimentary registration, but you must wait until 24 hours AFTER accepting your invitation before you can register for free.

If you are a contributor ONLY, you must register and pay the registration fee in your respective category. Contributors are i) individuals who participate in any role in a session or educational program that is owned/created/invited by entities outside the ACC.x Program Committee and its affiliated course directors, Chair and Vice Chair; and not invited under the signatures of the ACC.xx Chair/Vice Chair and managed by the Annual Meetings & Program Education Team; ii) individuals who participate in peer-reviewed or self-assessment activities as reviewers, question writers and other similar capacities. For more details please review this document: ACC.xx Benefits for Faculty, Abstract Presenters and Contributors.

3. Make a hotel reservation by visiting <https://accscientificsession.acc.org/Registration-and-Hotels>.

Additional Important Information:

- Become “Best in Class” by visiting the Faculty Development page: ACC is continuing the emphasis on “faculty development” initiatives to enhance the quality of education at the Annual Scientific Session.
- Become familiar with the audience response system/question texting technology, speaker timer equipment and more in the Speaker Service Center.
- Take ownership to ensure success of your session(s)—commit to “best practice” methods by agreeing to perform to expectations developed for your role. View session chair and speaker responsibilities and expectations by clicking here.
- View ACC.21 overall meeting goals and learning pathway objectives. The session you are invited to participate in is based on needs assessment and learning gap data derived from multiple sources.

Have questions? Visit our FAQs to find answers to our most common questions.

Still need help? Email Kara Dixon at kdixon@acc.org or Jill Diamond at jdiamond@acc.org if you are an ACC.21 speaker; or Matthew Parks at mparks@acc.org if you are an interventional or ischemic pathway speaker.

Your interest in the ACC is greatly appreciated. Thank you for your prompt response and we look forward to seeing you May 15-17 in Atlanta!
